DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hatscher et al. (US 2004/0122693 A1)
3. As per independent Claims 1, 8, and 15, Hatscher discloses a method for managing membership in a collaborative computing environment community (Abstract), the method comprising: receiving identification of a selected group of end user persons to invite to join the collaborative computing community; evaluating the selected group to identify one or more invitees there from (Fig.7A-7H, Para 0033, Para 0050-0052, People Finder); inviting the one or more identified invitees (Fig.7A-7H, Para 0053, invitation); and receiving an indication from one or more invitees that the invitee wishes to join the community (Claim 13 and 14).
4. As per Claims 2, 9, and 16, Hatscher discloses wherein evaluating the selected group includes determining whether any members of the selected group are already members of the community, the identified invitees being members of the selected group who are not already members of the community.

5. As per Claims 3, 10, and 17, Hatscher discloses wherein evaluating the selected group includes determining whether any members of the selected group are excluded from the community, the one or more identified invitees being members of the selected group who are not excluded from the community.
6. As per Claims 4, 11, and 18 Hatscher discloses performing access control processing to determine whether an invitee who has accepted the invitation to join the community is authorized to join the community.
7. As per Claims 5, 12, and 19, Hatscher discloses removing a group from the community, wherein members of the community who are members of the removed group are not removed as members of the community.
8. As per Claims 6 and 13, Hatscher discloses wherein inviting one or more identified invitees includes sending an electronic mail message to each of the identified invitees, the electronic mail message including a hyperlink, which can be selected to indicate a desire to join the community.
9. As per Claims 7 and 14, Hatscher discloses wherein evaluating the selected group includes determining whether any members of the selected group are excluded from the community, the one or more identified invitees being members of the selected group who are not excluded from the community.
10. As per Claim 20, Hatscher discloses wherein the system further comprises one or more second workstations in data communication with the collaborative computing server via the network, and wherein inviting one or more identified invitees includes sending an electronic mail message to the second workstation corresponding to each of the identified invitees, the electronic mail message including a hyperlink, which can be selected to indicate a desire to join the community.

Response to Arguments

11. Applicant's arguments filed on 2/1/2008, with respect to Claims 1-20, have been considered but are not persuasive. The rejection will remain as FINAL, based on the cited prior art.
12. A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
13. The Applicant has made the argument that the cited prior art fails to teach or suggest receiving an indication from one or more invitees that the invitee wishes to join the community.
14. However, Hatscher does disclose notifying people about the community and receiving an updated list of members indicating potential new members to the community (Claim 13 and 14); wherein, a new user joining the membership of a community would be an indication that the invitee wishes to join the community (changing the member listing – and causing an updated list to be forwarded).

Conclusion
